Dear

STAT

The Director of Central Intelligence has referred your letter of 7 May 1984 to me for response.

Although we appreciate the interest you have shown in the Agency, we must advise you that as a matter of policy the Agency does not endorse or take positions concerning this nation's domestic affairs. Therefore, it would not be appropriate for the Agency to take any position with respect to the matters set forth in your 7 May letter. Please understand that this in no way judges the merits of your organization or its stated objectives.

I also wish to emphasize that while we are unable to accept your offer of assistance, your interest as a concerned citizen in the ability of this Agency to carry out its lawful functions is much appreciated.

Sincerely,
